The Rodwell Incident + Sean Bennett
& Open Mic

Friday 5th April, 8pm

The Rodwell Incident's material is a blend of their 70's roots in folk & Americana alongside more traditional folk sounds. Sean Bennett is an outstanding singer-songwriter playing guitar in the tradition of John Martyn & Nick Drake, frequently employing alternative turnings to weave a rich tapestry of swirling, floating sound complete with eastern inflections to conjure up a compelling backdrop for his wistful & mythical lyrics. £4 on the door

Enrico Tomasso

Friday, 26th April 8pm

Considered one of today's finest trumpeters, Enrico Tomasso is a regular nominee at the British Jazz Awards, and has taken the award for best trumpet in 2012 and 2013. Enrico started playing the trumpet at the age of five. He spent twelve years with the Pasadena Roof Orchestra followed by a long stint with Ray Gelato's Giants. An exciting stage presence and a lively personality, combined with Enrico's fine command of his instrument and stylistic invention place him among the finest jazz stars of today. £10 on the door
