

The Grizzly Mutts + Amelia (& Open Mic)
Friday 10th May, 8pm

The Grizzly Mutts are Graham 'GeePee' Cousins, Nick Bidgood & Stephen Brayne a tight Americana influenced local trio featuring guitars, bass & close vocal harmonies. The groups material is built around Graham Cousins's classy songwriting with carefully chosen covers thrown in for good measure.

The line up is completed by Ameilia. Local musicians Dave Clark & Lee Ellis featuring an original blend of strong songs, melodic guitar & vocal harmonies. Dave & Lee have been playing together as Amelia since the Nineties, originally at the heart of a band of the same name & latterly as an acoustical duo with a repertoire which includes new songs alongside stripped down versions of their old band favourites. £4 on the door

Steve Buckley
Friday, 24th May 8pm

Steve began studying the clarinet at the age of 10, first with Cyril Chapman (clarinettist with the Royal Philharmonia Orchestra) and later with Colin Courtney (clarinet professor at the Royal College of Music). At 16 he took up the saxophone with a pile of Charlie Parker 78's as his main guide and inspiration. He was a key member of Loose Tubes (the highly acclaimed 21 piece jazz orchestra that became the focal point of the British jazz renaissance of the 80s). During this time, he was closely associated with the London African and Latin American scenes, playing with bands such as Taxi Pata Pata (a top Zairean Soukous outfit), Bosco D'Olivera's Grupo Folia and Roberto Pla's Latin Jazz Ensemble. His continued connections with African music led him to travel to Ghana to work with The Pan African Orchestra and with Kakatsitsi in the UK. He has also played and recorded with Massukos from Mozambique. £10 on the door
